

LISTENING FIRST TERM SCRIPT

1 Listen to the receptionist and the student. For questions 1–5 complete the form.

[R = receptionist, A = Anna]

- R Hello. Are you a new student?
A Yes, I am.
R Please sit down. I need to ask you a few questions.
A OK. That's fine.
R OK then. What's your first name?
A Anna.
R Is that two 'n's or one?
A Two. A-double N-A.
R Thanks. And your surname?
A Dabrowska.
R Da...?
A Dabrowska. D-A-B-R-O-W-S-K-A.
R Thank you. And where are you from?
A I'm from Poland.
R Great, thanks. And can I have your address?
A In Poland?
R No, where you're staying now.
R Oh yes, it's 36 London Road.
A Is that here in Bristol?
R Yes, it is.
A Do you know the postcode?
R Sorry, I don't.
A That's OK. Do you have an e-mail address?
R Yes, it's a.dabrowska@onet.pl.
A And could I have your home phone number please?
R Yes. It's 0048 71 339 7890.
A OK that's great. Thanks very much.

2 Listen to these short conversations. There is one question for each conversation. For questions 6–10 underline the correct answer.

EXAMPLE

- A Where are you from?
B Glasgow.
A So you're English.
B No, I'm not. I'm Scottish.
6
A See you tomorrow.
B No, tomorrow's Saturday.
A Oh, yes, sorry. I'll see you on Monday.
B Bye.

- 7
Receptionist How much is it for one night?
Tourist That's fifty euros.

Receptionist Fifteen?

Tourist No, fifty, five oh.

8

Teacher OK. Open your books. We're on page 12, lesson 3B.

Student 3D?

Teacher No, B.

9

Assistant Can I help you?

Customer Yes, a pizza and a mineral water please.

Assistant A pizza's eight euros and the water's three, so that's eleven euros please.

Customer Thanks very much.

10

A What's our gate number?

B 16.

A OK. Let's go.

B Relax. We've got 20 minutes.