

a Complete the sentences with a relative pronoun who, which, or what. Write the pronoun in the RELATIVE column.

A

' 1 I most hate in the world are people 2 talk loudly on mobile phones when they are on a train. There's a man 3 I see almost every evening on the train and his mobile phone rings about three times on the journey, 4 really annoys me. Do we really want to know 5 he's going to do tonight or 6 he's going to have for dinner or in 7 restaurant he ate at lunchtime? Recently I read an article 8 said that mobile phones boil your brains. I wonder if it's true.'

RELATIVE(S)

B

'The hotel, 9 had been recommended by a friend who's usually very reliable, was absolutely awful. First, it was next to a pub 10 was open until about 2.00 in the morning. All the customers seemed to have motorbikes. The receptionist, 11 obviously had a personality problem, was really unfriendly. She said the hotel was full and so she charged me for a double room, 12 was ridiculous. And on top of that it was a room 13 didn't even have a window. But 14 really annoyed me was that it was absolutely filthy and had an old TV 15 didn't work properly.'

b Cover the RELATIVE column. Can you remember them?
