

Used to 1

used to do and get used to doing

A Match each sentence with the correct picture: a, b or c.

1 She used to cycle up the hill.

2 She's used to cycling up the hill.

3 She's getting used to cycling up the hill.

4 He's used to changing her nappies.

5 He used to change her nappies.

6 He's getting used to changing her nappies.

B Answer the questions explaining that there is or was a problem. Use the correct form of used to in every answer.

The problem

Example:

'How's your new bicycle?'

'It's great now that I've got used to the new handlebars.'

The new handlebars were strange at first.

1 'How's England? Are you enjoying it?'

'I will if I can _____'

You don't like driving on the left.

2 'How's the new house?'

'It's OK, but I _____ never _____'

You have a tiny kitchen.

3 'Are you enjoying your stay in Sweden?'

'Yes, but I can't _____'

You don't like the cold!

4 'You know London very well, don't you?'

'Not any more, but I _____'

You knew it well before it changed.

5 'Do you like living in Cornwall?'

'It's very nice now that Sarah _____'

Sarah didn't like her new school at first.

6 'I hear you've gone back to university. How is it?'

'I'm enjoying the life, but after all this time I _____'

You haven't studied for years.

7 'Do you think you'll enjoy your new job?'

'I'm not sure; I _____'

You have never given people orders before.

8 'Do you play much sport?'

'Not now, but I _____'

You played football before your accident.

9 'How's the new job going?'

'I'm enjoying it, but I still _____'

You have never got up so early before.

Used to 2

used to do and get used to doing

A Match the beginning of each sentence with its ending, a or b.

- 1 I'm used to driving on the left a) when I lived in England several years ago.
- 2 I used to drive on the left b) because I've been in England for two years now.

- 3 I was used to cycling to work a) because I did it every day.
- 4 I used to cycle to work b) but I use the car all the time these days.

- 5 I used to go to bed late a) and I can always get up early the next day.
- 6 I'm used to going to bed late b) but I haven't got enough energy these days.

- 7 I was used to living in a small house a) because I'd never lived in a big one.
- 8 I got used to living in a small house b) when I was living in Japan.

- 9 I got used to the cold a) after I'd been here for a few months.
- 10 I'm used to the cold b) because I come from Siberia.

- 11 I used to have an open fire a) but I'll have to get used to it again living here.
a long time ago
- 12 I'm used to an open fire b) because I've got used to it living here.

B Match each expression on the left with its correct meaning on the right.

- 1 I used to do it means a) this is normal for me.
- 2 I was used to it means b) this was normal for me.
- 3 I am used to it means c) I did this regularly, but I don't any more.
- 4 I'll get used to it means d) I wasn't used to it at first, but now I am.
- 5 I've got used to it means e) I'm not used to it now, but I will be.

C Match each sentence beginning on the left with its correct ending on the right.

- 1 I used to a) rice every day; I come from Taiwan.
- 2 I'm used to b) eat rice every day but now I eat pasta mostly.
- 3 I got used to c) eating rice every day when I go to live in China next year.
- 4 I'll get used to d) eating rice every day when I lived in Japan last year.

D Make as many combinations as possible using one item from each box each time. There is a maximum of five possible combinations.

used to	+	infinitive	(for example, use a computer)
be used to	+	verb -ing	(for example, using a computer)
get used to	+	noun	(for example, computers)

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____