

KEY

GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY TEST. UNIT 2

NAME _____ 1st December, 2008

VOCABULARY

1. Define the following words in a clear way. Computers

- 1. A folder Where you keep files
- 2. A password to enter and work safely. only you, not others
- 3. Software programmes
- 4. Hardware The components (physical)
- 5. A virus sth that breaks your PC down

2. What do you do with the following activities? Computers

- 1. To download information, programmes, data, photo
- 2. To scan file, document, picture
- 3. To insert a CD ROM, a diskette
- 4. To edit a document
- 5. To search for a document, a file, information

3. Write the word for each definition. Computers

- 1. a piece of equipment that allows a computer to be connected to the Internet: MODEM
- 2. To enclose, add extra information in a document: to ATTACH
- 3. A page you update regularly to keep your friends or students informed: a BLOG
- 4. A person who send dangerous virus to other computers: a HACKER
- 5. A place on the Internet you can give your opinion about a certain topic or just speak to other people in the web: a CHAT ROOM

4. More vocabulary :Medicine

- 1. Define acupuncture: a kind of medicine which uses needles in certain parts of your body
- 2. Define homeopathic medicine: a kind of medicine which cures with plants and herbs in specific doses
- 3. If you feel sick, you have Nausea
- 4. The doctor will make a Diagnosis and decide how to treat you.
- 5. Explain the difference between : she's in hospital and she's at the hospital.

visit

nick

6. Is there a difference between I feel ill and I don't feel well? NO

7. Explain the difference between his knee hurts and his knee aches.

- hurts: a strong pain
- aches: continuous pain, not very strong

8. What happens if you have a stroke? Explain

- Artery in your brain breaks
- nerves are affected
- Parts of your body can't work properly
- It might affect from waist down or the whole body

9. The doctor will write a Prescription with the medicine you have to take and the dose.
10. You take the paper in 9. to the Pharmacy or Chemist and you buy there the medicine.
10. After you have been ill, it might take you a couple of weeks to recover: To get over the illness.

GRAMMAR

1. Conditionals. Put the verbs in brackets in the right conditional sentences types 0, 1 and 2
- If you don't stop (not stop) eating so much, you ill get (get) high blood pressure
 - She won't go (not go) to school, unless she feels (feel) better.
 - If I have (have) a headache, I always take (take) an aspirin.
 - If you heat (heat) water to 100°C, it boils (boils)
 - If I had (have) a problem with my back I would probably go (go) to the doctor, but I don't have it now, it's just a supposition.
 - If I were (be) you, I 'd take (take) some medicines, but it's your decision not mine.
2. Futures. Put the verbs in brackets in the most suitable form of the future.
- I 'm meeting (meet) my boyfriend for dinner tonight. I've already booked the restaurant.
 - I 'm going to buy (buy) a new computer. This one's too old and I need a new one, though I haven't seen one I like yet.
 - What are you going to do (you/do) tonight?
 - By the end of the year I 'll have sold (sell) a million records.
 - In the autumn I 'll be recording (record) my new album which will be finished in January.
 - My GP said I 'll have recovered (recover) from my illness by the end of the month.
 - It's very hot in here.
Don't worry, I 'll open (open) the windows.
 - He's playing on top of the ladder and I can see he is going to fall (fall)
 - This time tomorrow I 'll be travelling (travel) to Madrid. I'll be on my way there.